Speaking

Important Notice: Before retaking the Speaking Practice questions, please review the following information to help ensure the technical quality of your audio recording.

Suggestions for Improving the Audio Quality of your Recording:

- We recommend that you use a good quality headset (earphones with attached microphone) when you use this product.
- Check the connections between your headset and computer to be certain the cables are properly connected for recording your voice.
- Be sure that your microphone is properly positioned and adjusted to allow for the best possible recording.
- Take the Speaking Practice questions in a quiet environment.
- Speak directly into the microphone and at your normal speaking volume.

Feedback Analysis:

Reading	Level	Your Performance
Reading	Low	Test takers who receive a score at the LOW level, as you did, typically understand some of the information presented in academic texts in English that require a wide range of reading abilities, but their understanding is limited. Test takers who receive a score at the LOW level typically: 1. have a command of basic academic vocabulary, but their understanding of less common vocabulary is inconsistent; 2. have limited ability to understand and connect information, have difficulty recognizing paraphrases of text information, and often rely on particular words and phrases rather than a complete understanding of the text; 3. have difficulty identifying the author's purpose, except when that purpose is explicitly stated in the text or easy to infer from the text; and 4. can sometimes recognize major ideas from a text when the information is clearly presented, memorable, or illustrated by examples but have difficulty doing so when the text is more demanding.

Listening	Level	Your Performance
		Test takers who receive a score at the HIGH level, as you did, typically understand conversations and lectures in English that present a wide range of listening demands. These
